To whom it may concern,

It goes without saying that a couple going through a divorce inevitably contends with various challenges along the way of what can be a trying journey. This process can have lasting practical and emotional ramifications for both the couple as well as any other family members involved, specifically the children.

Our Kids First has emerged as a beacon to fill a much-needed gap in the community in supporting families during this time when they need it most. Their multi-faceted services, which encompass practical, emotional and legal guidance and mediation act as a pillar of support and can make all the difference.

We work closely with them and can testify that the team combines professionalism with true care and sincere devotion, for both sides equally. We commend them for putting the children's best interest at the forefront of their work.

We commend all those at Our Kids First for their efforts and bless them that they should continue to be able to bestow the blessing of support, ease and amicability upon others.

Sincerely,
The Dayanim of the Sephardi Beth Din
